

10th Seminar for National Judges

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS REGULATION AT A CROSS-ROAD

Organised by: DG Connect, European Commission, Brussels
Florence School of Regulation, European University Institute, Florence

Robert Schuman room, Berlaymont building
170, rue de la Loi – Brussels

15 January 2016

■ PROGRAMME

09.00-09.15 REGISTRATIONS

09.15-09.30 Welcome

09.30-11.00 Session I: Past Experiences and Future Challenges

Moderator: Pier Luigi Parcu | FSR/EUI

Roberto Viola | European Commission

Meinrad Handstanger | Administrative Court, Vienna

Martin Cave | Imperial College Business School

11.00-11.30 COFFEE BREAK

11.30-12.30 Keynote speech:

Recent Developments on the EU Case-law on Electronic Communications and Related Field

Moderator: Pier Luigi Parcu

Anthony Michael Collins | General Court

12.30-14.00 LUNCH

14.00-16.45 Session II: Applying Law in the Digital Single Market:
New Challenges for National Courts

Moderator: Eva Edwardsson | Administrative Court of Appeal, Stockholm

The Dilemma between Harmonisation of EU Regulation and Specific National Circumstances: The Case of the Near-net Obligation

Heico Kerkmeester | University of Antwerp, Court of Appeal for Trade and Industry, The Hague

UK Appeals from SMP Decisions under the Current Regulatory Framework

Adam Scott | Competition Appeal Tribunal, London

Measures to Counter Unreasonable Bundling: Can the National Regulatory Authority Evaluate and thus Regulate Bundles Featuring Regulated Products and Unregulated Products? The Issue Examined from the Maltese Perspective

Gabriella Vella | Administrative Review Court, Malta

Judicial Control of the Proportionality of Fees for the Right of Use of Radio Frequencies

Yves Doutriaux | Council of State, Paris

The Academic Perspective

Alexandre de Stree | University of Namur

16.45-17.15 Final remarks

Pier Luigi Parcu | FSR/EUI

Wolf-Dietrich Grussmann | European Commission

17.15 FAREWELL COFFEE AND NETWORKING