

European University
Institute

ROBERT
SCHUMAN
CENTRE FOR ADVANCED
STUDIES

FLORENCE
SCHOOL OF REGULATION

SEMINAR

BROADBAND DEPLOYMENT AND SPECTRUM MANAGEMENT IN THE DIGITAL SINGLE MARKET: FROM POLICY TO JUDICIAL CONTROL

Organised by: DG Connect, European Commission, Brussels
Florence School of Regulation, European University Institute, Florence

Room Mansholt, Charlemagne Building,
European Commission, Brussels

2 December 2013

■ PROGRAMME

- 09.00-09.15 Welcome
Wolf-Dietrich Grussmann | DG Connect, European Commission, Brussels
Pier Luigi Parcu | Florence School of Regulation, EUI, Florence
- 09.15-10.45 Session I: Towards a Single Telecommunications Market:
Major Regulatory Initiatives and Regulatory Developments
This session gives an overview of recent policy developments in electronic communications
- Moderator: Pier Luigi Parcu
The TSM proposal of the EC
Wolf-Dietrich Grussmann
The Recommendation on non-discrimination & costing methodology
Reinald Krüger | DG Connect, European Commission, Brussels
Major regulatory developments in the Member States
Bo Andersson | PTS, Stockholm
- 10.45-11.15 COFFEE BREAK

- 11.15-13.15 Session II: Judicial Control of Spectrum Management
 This session will provide participants with an overview of the European case-law on spectrum management and present practical cases on spectrum related issues that national judges have to deal with
- Moderator: Peter Alexiadis | Gibson Dunn & Crutcher LLP, Brussels
 Recent developments of EU case law on radio spectrum management
Ignacio Ulloa Rubio | General Court, Luxembourg
 Reusing frequencies: issues before national courts
Adam Scott | Competition Appeal Tribunal, London
 Practical issues of spectrum trading and spectrum pricing from the view of a judge
Hans Peter Lehofer | Administrative Court, Vienna
 What could be achieved with a better use of frequencies
Erik Bohlin | Chalmers University of Technology, Göteborg
- 13.15-14.45 LUNCH
- 14.45-16.30 Session III: Fostering Investments Through NGA Regulation? Challenges for the Judiciary When It Comes to Price Regulation
 This session will discuss the national judiciary's role in achieving the DAE goals
- Moderator: Erik Bohlin
 Access price and broadband deployment
Alexandre De Streel | University of Namur
 Next Generation Access Networks: The Dutch experience
Hendrik Kerkmeester | Court of Appeal for Trade and Industry, The Hague
 An Irish overview
Liam McKechnie | Supreme Court, Dublin
- 16.30-17.00 Final remarks
Pier Luigi Parcu
Wolf-Dietrich Grussmann
- 17.00 FAREWELL COFFEE AND NETWORKING